Report:

The Readers Club was inaugurated with fun vocabulary, literary games on Friday, 21st October at 10:45 am. in the A.V. room. The programme comprised of fun vocabulary and literary games for the students.

All were given chocolates and books as prizes.

The following games were enjoyed by all:

*Read Aloud

*Find the word puzzle

*Spell Bee

*Tongue Twisters

*Identify the Author

The major highlight of the event was that the appeal by the Dept. for books to be donated by the staff and the students bore great results. 377 books were collected from the personal collection of teachers of institutions like IIT Bombay, MCC College and the staff and students of SPDC. These books were displayed for all. The winners were given books as prizes. The audience genuinely participated with great interest and inquired about the next event of ELA. Ms. Harshita Gurnani proposed the vote of thanks.

Brochure:

The collection of the Dept. library was formed by an appeal to all over various social media platforms. It was positively reciprocated by many.
