Feedback on the Syllabus and its Transaction at the Institution from the Stakeholders

Feedback Process:

The Feedback is collected from stakeholders regarding the curriculum. The questionnaire was constructed based on various parameters, including the depth of the syllabus, the fundamental knowledge required, its applicability, and employability prospects. The feedback was collected through offline methods.

Feedback:

Students have expressed satisfaction with the depth and continuity of the curriculum from previous courses, as well as the incorporation of study tours, field visits, and hands-on experiences. However, they have indicated that the current curriculum does not sufficiently enhance their employability.

The alumni expressed that the curriculum effectively contributed to the development of essential skill sets and the overall personality of the learners. They conveyed satisfaction with the specialized courses incorporated into the curriculum, noting their utility in enhancing employment prospects and fulfilling the ambitions of the students.

Employers have expressed satisfaction with the fundamental knowledge that their employees acquired during their academic tenure. However, they have also indicated a need for the integration of specific skills within the curriculum to better prepare graduates for the demands of the workforce.

Teacher have expressed that the curriculum developed by the University of Mumbai is highly relevant. They emphasize the necessity of incorporating contemporary skills that foster personality development and enhance employability.

Feedback Analysis:

Feedback was systematically collected and analyzed by each department. The analysis was presented in the form of graphs and tables.

The feedback and Feedback Analysis is available on the website of the college.
