

The Satish Pradhan Dnyanasadhana College Alumni Association, Thane, was officially registered on June 27, 2018, with registration number MAH/1058/2018/THANE. The association maintains a bank account at Thane Janata Sahakari Bank Ltd. Committee members of association periodically share their ideas with the Principal.

Since its inception, the alumni body has been instrumental in supporting the college and its students. Their contributions span various domains, from healthcare to career guidance. A prime example is the vaccination drive organized by alumnus Naresh Mhaske then Mayor of Thane and now MP, which benefited teachers in April 2021. This initiative showcased the alumni's commitment to the well-being of the college community.

The association has also been proactive in bridging the gap between academia and industry. Alumni from diverse fields have generously shared their expertise with students. Yash Jadhav, a computer science alumnus, has been instrumental in maintaining the college app, demonstrating the alumni's involvement in the college's technological advancements.

To inspire and prepare students for the world beyond the classroom, the alumni association has organized a series of guidance lectures. These sessions have covered a wide range of topics. Alumni like Yash Thakkar (Alumni-2020 Batch-Computer Science) talked on various aspects of the interview process and questions asked normally in the interviews. CA Nikhilesh Soman gave a brief idea about a macroeconomic aspect of the Union budget. Rugved Deshpande has shared invaluable insights with aspiring professionals.

Furthermore, the association has played a crucial role in extracurricular development. Alumnus Pooja Chavan provided invaluable guidance to students participating in a one-act play competition for Rangabhumi Karandak, Kalankur Karandak, Mohan Bansode and her contributions to the youth festival showcased the alumni's artistic inclinations. Under the guidance of writer and director Manish Sathe FTNEP students involved in making Web series 'MUNTJIR'.

Pratish Mallik's sharing of his experiences at the CERN lab in Switzerland not only inspired students to pursue higher education abroad but also highlighted the global reach of the alumni network. The association's efforts to connect students with successful alumni like Vijay Patil, a senior purchase manager, during the annual prize distribution ceremony have fostered mentorship and provided students with valuable career perspectives.

Interview of alumnus Milind Bhagwat, Senior news reporter and editor (News 18 Lokmat) was organized in which he shared his experience in the field of media.

A unique initiative involved students from the 2020-21 batch sharing their filmmaking experiences with their juniors. This peer-to-peer learning approach encouraged knowledge sharing and skill development among the students. Mr. Aditya Farhad who got Dadasaheb Falke award for the Marathi short film 'Pauli' guided students for the career path in cinematography. Pradnya Mhatre, a renowned journalist from Marathi Newspaper Lokmat, offered insights into the media industry, broadening students' career horizons.

Alumnus Shankar Kokate, Proprietor, Sai Tours and Travels extends his professional advice in arranging industrial visits.

By providing a platform for interaction between students and accomplished alumni like Sanket Chavan, Sanchit Agarwal, Vishakha Rasal and Shubham Gothankar the association has created a supportive environment that encourages personal and professional growth.
